DATE: 4 August 2021
CIRCULAR: 21/80
SUBJECT: Environmental Monitoring and Governance Webinar on Inform E-Learning to Decision Platform

Dear SPREP Focal Points,

The SPREP-led webinar series, “Our Pacific Environment in a COVID-19 World” is pleased to announce the webinar which will be facilitated by the Environmental Monitoring and Governance Programme of SPREP titled “Inform, e-learning to Decision” The webinar is part of the Inform Project activity for the 14 Pacific Island countries.

I kindly invite you to register and join the webinar which will be held on 11th August of this year, from 2.00 – 3.30pm (Samoa time).

Working to support our Pacific islands, SPREP is expanding the Pacific e-learning platform to include management of environmental data and the application of indicator reporting tools, for our Pacific Islands.

I welcome you to be part of our online event that will involve some discussions on the use of the e-learning platform and to launch the Inform e-learning platform. We will also introduce the modules developed to support enhanced environmental data access, analysis and use for decision making and reporting by our Pacific Island Members.

“Inform e-learning to Decision” webinar will be sharing experiences from across our Pacific Islands – SPREP, Federated States of Micronesia, Tonga, and Vanuatu as we work and guided by the following principles:

- Availability and Openness: Importance and impetus of online data management and sharing for decision making during COVID-19 times
- Remote Support: Support the delivery of capacity building activities for officers in the region through a robust and effective distance learning highway, with added flexibility on learning pace
- Collaboration: Encourage everyone to take advantage of the free distance learning course to learn how their national data portal and indicator reporting tool works
- Data Ethics Consideration: Empowering best practices for working with environmental data in the region
