SUBJECT: Invitation: Pacific Regional Dialogue on Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) and PCCC Legacy Initiatives Project Development, 7-11 April 2025, Novotel Hotel, Nadi, Fiji

Dear SPREP Focal Points,

I am pleased to inform you of the upcoming Pacific Regional Dialogue on Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) and PCCC Legacy Initiatives Project Development, 7-11 April 2025, Novotel Hotel, Nadi, Fiji. An invitation is therefore extended to your Climate Change Focal Point to attend this important event.

The objectives of this event are to:

- Provide an update on the outcomes of the IPCC 62 session and discuss the importance and priorities for the Pacific in engaging with the IPCC.
- Provide an overview of the IPCC's seventh assessment report (AR7) cycle and key reports, known timelines and processes.
- Present opportunities for the IPCC Scholarships
- Discuss challenges and solutions for enhanced Pacific engagement with the IPCC including regional coordination of National IPCC Focal Points and pathways for Pacific climate change researchers to get involved in IPCC reports.
- Presentation of the Pacific Climate Change Research Roadmap
- Development of proposals and concept notes for strengthening the key functions of the PCCC through research, Innovation, knowledge brokerage and capacity building and training.

This event will be jointly delivered and implemented in collaboration with multiple partners. This regional engagement is an opportunity to amplify the priority needs for effective regional coordination for ongoing and pipeline technical implementation of IPCC best-practices and develop concepts notes for strengthening the four key functions of the Centre.

Kindly complete the attached Nomination Form with the name and details of your Climate Change Focal Point or one alternative suitable candidate and submit via email to pccc@sprep.org by COB Friday 21 February 2025 to facilitate travel arrangements and necessary logistical preparations.

Yours sincerely,

Easter Chu Shing
Acting Director General
